

Worry Will Vanish

Inspired by Pipilotti Rist's Worry Will Vanish

Looking through the eye of another.
Feeling yourself morphing, changing,
becoming a stranger.
The colors they see
nothing like what you would've imagined.
All things change.
What you see, hear, smell, touch, taste.
Like it's your first time to really be alive!
Then calm emptiness.
