

Mighty Words Meant for You

Crows croaked a cacophony over the crowd.
Dragonflies drown on drowning out the drums.
Each of us ecstatic for this energetic epigraph
Forming a friendship through flowing forms
Growing closer going to remember gathering
Here to hear her sing harmonies wholesomely
I will ingrain this memory. I have you inside my heart.
Just like all the rest.
The kisses, and cuddles, and kick-ass karaoke nights.
Loving you makes life worth living.
