

Reality

Reality is way too scary.
I don't want to think See Watch
Hear Experience,

the horror
that is going on outside
the four walls of my home.

If I do
I will break,
I will cry.

I will lose the hope that I am so desperately clinging to.

Because I want to LIVE!
I want my family to be unaffected by this...

This curse!
Death
Disease
Plague

I don't want to think.
Please,
don't make me face reality.

Don't make reality
real.

I cling to the thread
I have left.

Knuckles white fingers cutting into the thread bleeding.

I will suffer that pain.
That pain I can take.

But not this.

I fear what lies below me.

The truth Reality.
