Sketch 160 A

Chaos comes in many forms.
Have you ever wondered what the chaos of a dysfunctional life looks like?
Me too!
It looks like this:
Agony rakes faces, distorting the world we know.
Eyes grow wide with fear.
The saying "back breaking work" is no longer a saying but true brutal reality.
Anyway,
enjoy your peaceful existences while it lasts.
This might be the last time you know the feeling of peace and quiet.
