

Ghost Writer

Hello there
Mackenzie.

I've been watching your progress
In life.

Those panic attacks of yours are nothing to worry about.

You act as if you are alone in the world. But you are not.

You have family and friends—
why do you push them away?

They love you very much.
I have seen this love
I wish I was that loved when I was alive.

Do not give up on yourself
Mackenzie.

I know you are capable of so much more.

I have seen it.
